Welcome Home

In 1979, Congress mandated the establishment of Vet Centers to provide readjustment counseling services to Vietnam era Combat Veterans who were experiencing problems adjusting from military life to civilian life after having served during war times. Due to the success of the Vet Center in addressing the needs of combat Veterans, the program was expanded to include veterans who served in post-Vietnam conflicts as well as WW-II and Korean War veterans and those who have experienced sexual harassment/trauma in the military. Today there are around 300 Vet Centers, and 75 Mobile Vet Centers located throughout the United States and its territories.

SERVICES OFFERED INCLUDE:

- Readjustment counseling
- Substance abuse information and referral
- Referral for benefits assistance
- Liaison with community agencies
- Employment counseling and referral
- Benefits counseling and referral
- Individual Counseling
- Marriage and family Counseling
- Group Counseling
- Bereavement counseling
- Community education and outreach
- Sexual trauma counseling
